

January 26, 2015

50 WEST

Construction Update

Superstructure has reached the 17th floor at Helmut Jahn's 50 West Street. The 64-story, 780-foot residential tower will bring 191 condo units to Lower Manhattan. Some of the condo units will feature duplexes while others offer double height living rooms with skyline views. Amenities in the building include a pool, private fitness center, an entertainment floor, a landscaped rooftop observatory, and office condominiums on the third floor that residents can purchase for the ultimate home office.

ENCLOSURE

STRUCTURE

Looking north on West Street.

Southwest corner from West Street.

Southwest corner from West Street.

West facade from West Street.

Northwest corner from West Street.

Southeast corner from Washington Street.

Northeast corner from Washington Street.

East facade from Washington Street.

View from the Rector Street Pedestrian Bridge.

Architects: Jahn; Interiors: Thomas Juul-Hansen; Developers: Time Equities Inc.; Program: Residential; Completion: 2016.

