The celebrity couple recently listed their posh Manhattan apartment, and we have a few ideas as to where they should settle down next.

Thanks to her never-ending stream of videos and photos on Instagram, we've all been granted a first-hand look into super model Chrissy Teigen's adorable life with musician John Legend and their three beyond cute fur-children, Penny, Pippa, and Puddy. Teigen's Instagram account has also given us a glimpse into the glamorous New York City apartment the couple keeps. That said, you can imagine our surprise when news broke last week that the pair had decided to sell their Manhattan digs.

Reportedly, the stars are looking for a more spacious home in the city, with room to start a family. While there's is one celeb baby we'd love to see, we'll definitely miss getting to peek inside their current apartment.

But, if there's one thing we can count on, it's that Teigen and Legend are moving on to bigger and better. So, we took it upon ourselves to find a couple of swoon-worthy Manhattan listings that would be perfect for the couple and their growing family. The credentials: a spacious kitchen for chef-extraordinaire Teigen, room to entertain celebrity friends like Kim Kardashian and Kanye West, and, of course, plenty of space for a nursery and kids rooms.

Here are four top contenders:

1) 111 East 56th Street

Our friends at Citi Habitats combed their listings to find this gem: an elegant and sprawling penthouse on the entire top floor of the Upper East Side's Lombardy hotel. Priced at $4.295 million, the 3,800-square-foot property has three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a powder room, an large chef's kitchen, and an expansive terrace perfect for entertaining guests or playing with the (future) kids.

As celebrities, it's important their next home offers privacy and security. For its part, the East 56th street penthouse has a private elevator that opens directly into the unit. And it wouldn't be the home's first brush with fame. The hotel building was built in the 1920s by publishing icon William Randolph Hearst, and the apartment itself has been lived in by author Edna Ferber, composer Richard Rodgers, and Broadway producer Albert Tapper.

Another great amenity? Since the penthouse rests atop a luxury hotel, Teigen and John would have access to all the guest perks. That includes maid service two times a day.

2) 1 Centre Market Place

Next up, from CORE, a four-story townhouse on the borderline of lower Manhattan neighborhoods SoHo and Nolita. Built on a low-traffic block, the five bedroom home offers 4,100 square feet of living space, two terraces, and a roof deck.

For Teigen, the home has a gourmet chef's kitchen with state-of-the-art appliances. Plus, Legend could easily transform one of the many bedrooms into a writing or recording studio, with plenty of room left for their potential little ones.

The townhouse would cost the celebrity couple $7.5 million, but the entire second floor master suite surely makes up for the high price tag. Space like that is a rare find in New York City.

3) 50 West Street

Located in Manhattan's Financial District, penthouse 59B of the luxury high-rise offers sweeping views and access to a rapidly developing, family-friendly area. The 3,594-square-foot unit boasts three bedrooms, four bathrooms, an open kitchen, and ample living space for party hosting.

The $22.654 million price tag also includes some major perks. The building features a children's playroom, kids studio, gaming room, and even a curated library. Teigen and Legend's pups will also be spoiled living at 50 West Street, as the development has a glamorous pet spa on site.

If the always-working couple begins to feel cramped, office condos are also available in the building. Music studio, anyone?

4) 51 Jay Street

They may be Manhattanites now, but we could definitely see the power couple planting permanent roots in Brooklyn. Converted from a former warehouse, this incredible penthouse is located inside one of DUMBO's most in-demand buildings.

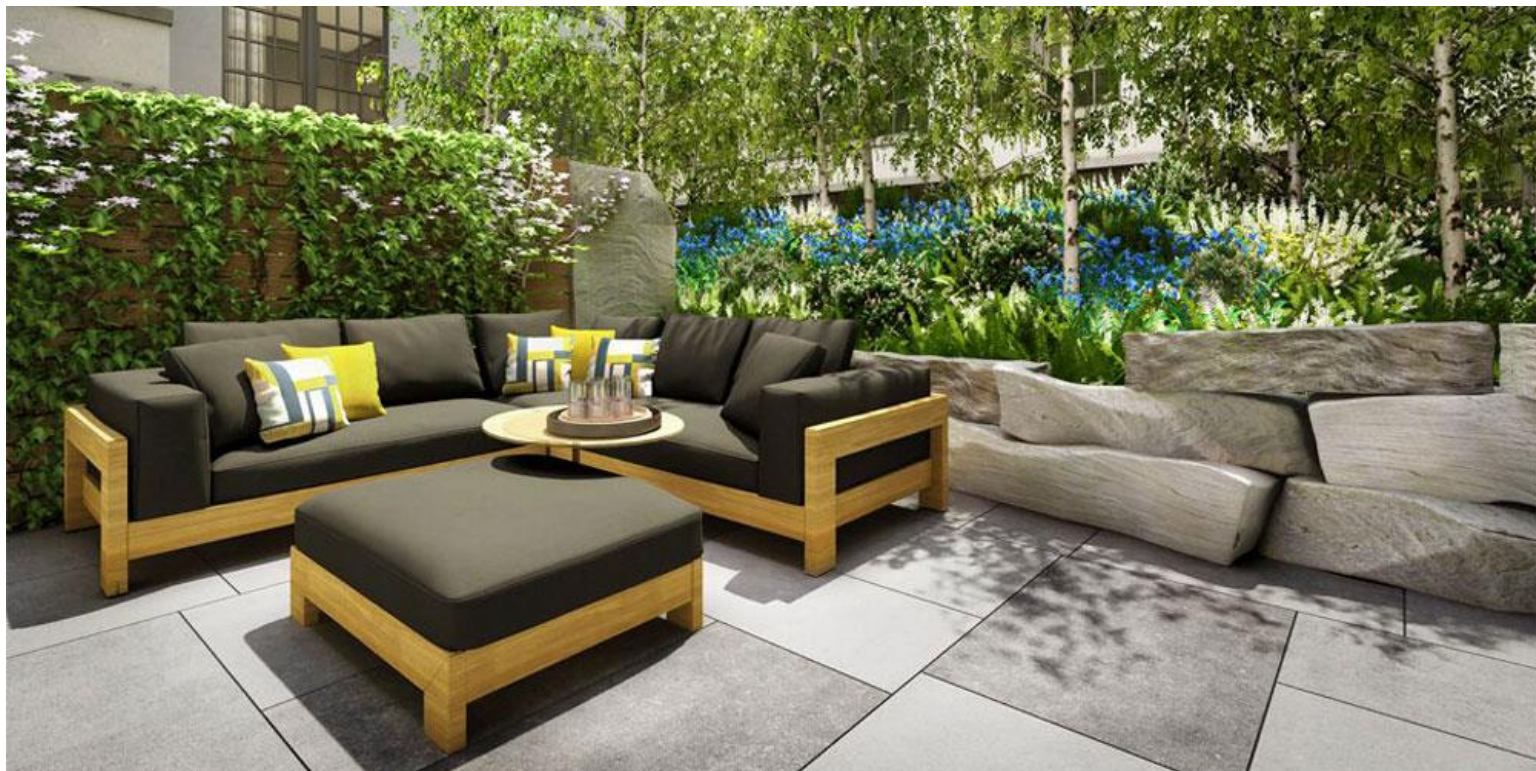

Heavenly

With a total of six rooms, the $5.15 million apartment isn't short on space. Four bedrooms make it a great home for starting a family, not to mention the professionally programmed children's playroom.

Heavenly

It also doesn't hurt that 51 Jay Street is located just minutes away from DUMBO's sprawling waterfront park. The playful pair, we're sure, would enjoy the magnificently restored carousel.

Heavenly

Wherever Teigen and Legend settle next, we can't wait to see pictures of the loved-up couple enjoying their new home.
